Cagamas Bhd has appointed Kameel Abdul Halim as its new president and chief executive officer effective from Sept 11.

KUALA LUMPUR: Cagamas Bhd has appointed Kameel Abdul Halim as its new president and chief executive officer effective from Sept 11.

Kameel will succeed Datuk Chung Chee Leong, who will complete his term on August 30.

"The Cagamas board of directors is pleased to welcome Kameel as the new president and chief executive officer to lead Cagamas on its next phase of growth.

"The board would like to express its appreciation to Chung for his leadership and dedication throughout his 11-year service and wish him all the best in his future endeavours," Cagamas said in a statement today.

Kameel has more than 25 years of experience in the financial services industry with a wide range of expertise in commercial banking, development finance and investment banking.

He has a Bachelor of Business Administration (Hons) from Coventry University, United Kingdom, and a Masters in Risk Management (Hons) from University of Nottingham, United Kingdom.
